Clovis People and Folsom People were traders who traded goods to others who did not have access to these goods, along with knowledge on how to use them. Trade gave People new materials, new skills, and more choices. Read the information, and study the maps entitled Anderson Figure 1 on Clovis fluted points and Figure 5 Folsom points. List some details you learned about Clovis and Folsom People. Then, give reasons why it is important to have access to these types of maps.
